PRESS RELEASE

Obilic Cup 3 on 3 Tournament – 09 October 2010

SYDNEY, 27 August 2010 Obilic Basketball Club, is proud to announce the 5th rendition of the Obilic Cup, 3 on 3 Competition. The Obilic Cup will be played on the 9th of October at Cabramatta PCYC, 162 Railway Parade Cabramatta, the home of Obilic Basketball.

President of Obilic, Mr Stevan Sipka said “we will continue with the theme of unity amongst junior and senior players, and again hold this year’s Obilic Cup on the one day. This years’ tournament will have strong memorial significance as it will be 76 years to the day the Serbian King Alexander was tragically assassinated in Marseilles. We make no secret that our club supports the Serbian dynastic heritage and that is why our 1st team is called Obilic Royals”.

The expectation is that 16 teams will participate in the junior and senior categories, so team places will again be limited. Entries close on the 3rd October, so teams wishing to enter need to contact Obilic Basketball Club with contact details on the web-site www.obilic.com.au.

Obilic Cup 2010 event coordinator, Mr Aleks Kuzmanovic said, “The Serbian National team most recently won the Youth Olympic 3 on 3 tournament in Singapore, so we need to uphold this strong tradition that Serbia has with this form of the game. We know that the Obilic Cup is the premier 3 on 3 competition in Sydney, and our aim is to have the best 3 on 3 competition in Australia. Last year, we had a good team compete from Adelaide and hopefully Melbourne and Brisbane will also make the trip to Cabramatta”.

The tournament will consist of u/12, u/16, u/18 and men’s competitions. Popular special events will be held such as Slam-Dunk competitions and the 3 point shoot-out. We will also hold novelty events, including a “minute to win it” shooting competition.

A BBQ area will be set up, cooking traditional Serbian style BBQ and refreshments also be available. Spectator entry will be free of charge.
